Kamden

by Janea Love

Trisomy 21 also known as Down Syndrome, is not something that is inherited. It just randomly happens. It occurs as a random event during cell division early in fetal development. It was first discovered in 1959 by Doctor John Langdon. Some common physical signs of Down Syndrome include decreased or poor muscle tone, short neck with excess skin at the back of the neck, flattened facial and profile nose, small head, ears and mouth, and wide short fingers. In addition to poor muscle tone, Down Syndrome individuals are often slowed down by it. They learn how to sit, crawl and walk slower than others. But, just because they have an extra chromosome, it doesn't make them any less than you and me. They are human too. THEY MATTER!!!

My brother, Kamden King Rogers, has Down Syndrome. And he is no different than me.

He is smart, kind, and dedicated. Kamden has some features but not all. You can barely tell that he has it. Kamden can sit by himself and crawl. He just started taking steps. He has therapy every day of the week to keep him on track. He works really hard everyday to strengthen his muscles. He is fighter and he is my soldier. I look up to my brother because he has been through more than me already and he is only 18 months. He has had about nine surgeries and more to come.

That is what makes him a fighter. People sometimes look at Down Syndrome kids and adults differently and make fun of them. That breaks my heart because in all reality they cannot help that they were born that way.

My brother has a strong personality like no other. He knows a lot of sign language before he can even talk. How many people can say that? He knows what he wants when he wants to do it on his own. He is very independent. Every time someone comes across him they fall in love with him because they are amazed how awesome he is. So, before you judge someone with a disability, please get to know them. They are best the people that you will meet. Down Syndrome individuals would never turn their back on you and will give you the best LOVE AND FRIENDSHIP you could ask for. I love Trisomy 21 and most of all I love my baby brother Kamden King Rogers also known as fat man. You matter.

BEGINNINGS!!!!!!!!!!

Mr. Alsup is our New who was introduced this Alsup he told me a lot of Mr. Alsup went to Beginnings teacher year. I interviewed Mr. things. Did you know school with Ms.

Fenwick? Mr. Alsup has 5 kids and he even said one of them goes to this school. Her name is Talia Alsup. Mr. Alsup was born in Owensboro, Kentucky. All of the kids in the New Beginnings classroom go to the gym at 12:30 if they have earned it. Mr. Alsup's favorite basketball team is Kentucky Wildcats. His favorite football team is the Colts.

Mr. Alsup has told me that New Beginnings has been going well this year. Mr. Alsup's favorite subject in school was PHYSICAL EDUCATION.

Dear D'nei and Ruby

There is now going to be a new newspaper section that we call a Dear D'Nei and Ruby. We decided we should start something new in the Justice Newspaper. But first we need at least give you a background of what it is if you don't know. In 1987, Dear Abby was read in over 1200 newspapers published the column moved from the Chicago Tribune to the Chicago Sun-Times. The author got a pen name of Abigail Van Buren, but then she changed it to a nickname of Dear Abby. Eventually, she gave the name and the article rights to her sister. Dear Abby is where you can ask a question anonymously and then Dear Abby will answer your question with the truth just like a true friend. How about we give an example.

Dear D'Nei and Ruby, My son is going to a different school and I think he's learning bad things off of other kids. What should I do to find out what's going on with him and why? Signed, Concerned Parent

Dear Concerned Parent, Our advice is that you should sit down with him first ask him about school. Second, ask him about some of his friends/students. Third, you should go talk to his teacher/teachers to see what's going on. And if that doesn't work, contact us again.

So if you have a problem or question just write your name on a piece of paper and put it in a bucket marked Dear D'nei and Ruby located in the library. We will be reading and answering them soon.

I Got A Rock! By Ava Adams

Since I was a little kid, my dad has watched with my sisters and me, “It’s the Great Pumpkin, Charlie Brown.” We all laugh when Charlie Brown gets a rock in his bag at every stop. This made me curious about what other students at Justice do for Halloween in addition to dressing up and collecting as much candy as possible.

Our school librarian, Mrs.Persinger, cooks pumpkin seeds, makes pumpkin bread, goes to an orchard and passes out candy. Her family also carves pumpkins like some of my other friends do. Nathaniel Beck’s family also cook pumpkin seeds. They like to decorate the outside of their house and dress up to match the decorations. They also get Domino's Pizza as one of their traditions.

Mrs. Vermillion’s family would all go to their grandparent’s house and take a picture of everyone in their costumes before going out for the evening. They always had a big family dinner to end the night. Sometimes there were more than 40 people at dinner.

One of the things all of my friends have in common for Halloween is they go out to get “Tricks or Treats” This year, I am going as a bag of popcorn. My classmate, Grace Chandler, is going as a witch. Emma Miller is going as an escaped prisoner. All of us hope we don’t get a rock! Happy Halloween!

Mississinewa 1812 By Damien Martin and Caleb Huff

BOOM!! The Battle of 1812 occurred on Dec.17th years ago. The war for freedom had begun. Indians helped the British government to take America from the Americans. It was a search and destroy mission. The causes of the war included British attempts to restrict US trade. The War of 1812 is one of the most remembered events in history. The battle was between the Great British and the U.S. PSSST. “We won!!” The Americans said in the end. In celebration they ate the following: French beignets, barbecue chops, buffalo burgers, bratwurst, ribs & chicken and much more. This is why 1812 is so remembered.

Lamborghiniis

by Caymen Cottrell and Shan Reed

Lamborghiniis are one of the fanciest and fastest cars out there. They can go up to 220 mph and go to 0 to 60 in 12.9 seconds. But, how much do they cost? Well, they cost a lot about $200,000.

NO RECESS

Editorial! By Aryssa McCord.

Do you think students gain energy from this extra and unused time? Don't you think it gives them less knowledge and a creative mind? Well, I think recess takes up too much of the child's mind to be put in the school schedule! Some people say that, even though it takes up time, it gives the mind less stress and that it could make them worked out of energy. You know what, I do think that. But do you think that's a good enough reason to let kids have such a thing in their list? Here's why I think they should not have recess:

1. Recess takes up time. It takes away focus and intelligence from the child's mind. If you're going to give recess, why not take away the whole day of learning for the student?
2. It doesn't help people get through the rest of the day. It takes up too much focus. Once you go through this "recess" you can't focus enough on your work and play around too much.
3. Children get too hyper after recess and won't calm down. Most of them get in trouble. If they get in trouble they won't have a good education. Isn't that worse than losing recess???
4. A waste of money! Taxpayers pay for the money on school education. If they're paying for the equipment, then they're not using money wisely. Would YOU rather have an EDUCATION or RECESS?

Let Us Have Recess

by Steven Fuller

There are a lot of kids in our schools that do not work as hard as they can because they do not have recess. I am sure that if we gave recess to the students that they would start improving their grades. Here are some facts on why kids should get recess

1. Recess wears kids out so that they don't have enough energy to run around the classroom.
2. School needs to be fun because kids don't like being bored and if school isn't fun they won't want to go to school.
3. Kids need a break, adults get a break, why can't students

Let us be kids --Let us have recess!

Waterparks --- by Ava Marroni

Would you like to know about a lot of waterparks? Well, I have 3 waterparks that I'm going to tell you about, so let me tell you them!

The first waterpark I'm going to tell you about is the Splash House and I love going to the Splash House! It has 3 waterslides, a lazy river, a wave pool, and a concession stand. One of the 2 waterslides are together, which one of them is closed, and the other one is opened. The 3rd waterslide is what I call The Toilet Bowl Waterslide. When I go to the Splash House, I'm always afraid to go on The Toilet Bowl, but I LOVE to go on the open and closed waterslide because it's so much fun! But I've never gotten to get anything at the concession stand.

The second waterpark that I'm going to talk about (and a waterpark that I've never been to) is Caribbean Cove Indoor Waterpark. The waterslides that I'm going to tell you is Tropical Twist, Aqua Whiz Body Slide, Raging Rapids, and Norwegian Escape; Green Trapdoor Waterslide. I watched the preview for all of them, and most of them looked scary for me. But that's my opinion, and some people would probably say they look fun.

And for the final waterpark, Holiday World. Well, it's actually an amusement park AND a waterpark. But I've only been there once. I've been to both the waterpark and the amusement park and let me tell you some of the rides that I rode that were in the waterpark area, I was SO SCARED!!! And it's kinda cool because they built Holiday World into holiday sections like: Halloween, Christmas, Thanksgiving, and lots more. There were some rides that were in the amusement park section that I loved.

I hope you liked this article, and I hope that you read this article again! Bye!

THERE it IS $100!!!

by Aaliyah Rice

What would you do if you saw $100 on the floor?

Mya said she would look for the person who lost it. Olivia said she would keep it. Shan said he would keep it too. Where would you go with the $100.00 dollars? Mya said that she would go to the mall with it. Olivia said she would go skating with it. Shan said that he could buy some games with it. What if your friends asked if she could have so money? Mya said she will not give it to them. Olivia said she would keep it to herself. Shan said that he would not give it to his friends because he found it.

Would you tell your friends you found $100?

CRYSTAL by Nate Randolph-Davis

I collect rocks because they give off a nice energy. I have been collecting crystals for about 2 months now. Some people like me even believe crystals are magic. I even dream about crystals. Someday, I hope to be an archaeologist to find even more crystals.

Kinds of crystals

.rose quartz: a pink tinted common quartz said to be the crystal of love

.amethyst: really common and seen in the image above

.rainbow obsidian: look likes a rainbow in a black gem

People Who Want To Play Basketball For Justice

Basketball is a great sport. All people around the world play basketball. People that are really good can make it to the NBA, such as, Jeff Teague, LeBron James, Stephen Curry, and Klay Thompson. We even have our own basketball team here at Justice. So far these are the people who signed up, Caleb Richardson, Daekwon Little, Junior Zapata, Amar Rogers, Bo Guerrero, Brice Green, Tim'Asia Marble, Jada Lamb, Janea Love, Jayce Flemmings(maybe), Khloe Bell-Michell, Amarie Horton, Darion Elkons, and Bryson Bell-Michell. These are some of the people who want to play for Justice. Good luck to all who want to play and hope more sign up!

Did you know: Jeff Teague is Ashiyah's cousin????!!!

P.S. These are not all the people who want to sign up, just some!

Pokemon of the Week

by Whit Booher

These are the pokemon for the October edition. October is the "scary" month. These are our contestants, Chandelure and Spiritomb. They brought two stories from their past.

It absorbs a spirit, which it then burns. By waving the flames on its arms, it puts its foes into a hypnotic trance. Being consumed in Chandelure's flame burns up the spirit, leaving the body behind.

It was formed by uniting 108 spirits. It has been bound to the Odd Keystone to keep it from doing any mischief.

Its constant mischief and misdeeds resulted in it being bound to an Odd Keystone by a mysterious spell.
