RIVERVIEW NEWS

Riverview Elementary Newsletter

September 2017

IN FOCUS:Volunteer Information

If you would like to volunteer at Riverview, you will need to fill out a volunteer application from the office. This includes volunteering in a classroom, on a field trip, and anytime with children at Riverview. Please stop by and fill one out.

Car Arrival & Dismissal

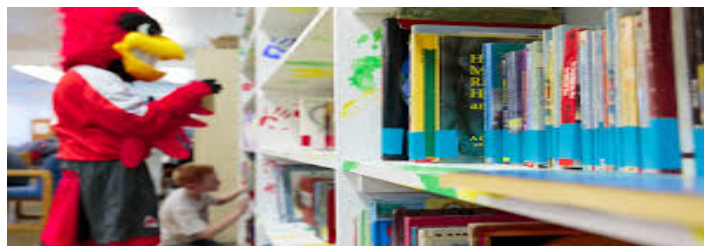

During arrival, please say all of your 'good-byes' before pulling up to the drop-off zone. We do our best to keep the car line moving. Students should be ready to exit car as soon as the car comes to a complete stop. During dismissal, please remember not to block any driveways. Police will ticket. Please use turn signals when entering and exiting.

Our first Family Night will be on Tuesday September 26, 2017. Please Join us from 5 pm to 6:30 pm at Riverview Elementary. This family night will include food in the cafeteria from 5:00 pm to 5:30 pm and activities at your child's grade level from 5:30 pm to 6:30 pm. The book fair will also be taking place in the gym during family night. The book fair theme is "Wild West Book Fair: Saddle Up and Read". In addition to family night, the book fair will be available to students during school the week of September 25-29.

Charlie's Reading Challenge

We are excited to share that we will be participating the Charlie's Reading Challenge through Ball State University. If your P-4 student accomplishes the goal set by their teacher by October 3rd then they will receive 2 free BSU football tickets for the game on October 21st. We hope every student completes the challenge.

GIANT BY CHOICE!
