Homecoming for MCS will be celebrated September 10-14. We are going to celebrate in many ways. We will first have special dress-up days during the week.

Monday = Hat Day (Wear a hat all day)

Tuesday = Storybook Character (Dress up like a character)

Wednesday = Pajama Day (Wear pajamas, but don't forget shoes)

Thursday = Superhero Day (Dress up like your favorite superhero)

Friday = GIANT Pride Day! Wear PURPLE & GOLD

Face paint, spray-on hair color, and toy weapons not allowed

Riverview will also be walking in the Homecoming Parade on Friday, September 14th. We would like students and parents to walk with us. Parade line up will be at the Splash House parking lots at 4:30PM. The parade route starts at intersection of Washington and 26th streets, runs west on 26th street to Zach Randolph Way (Carey St.), turns north there, and ends at Dick Lootens Stadium at MHS. WEAR YOUR PURPLE AND GOLD!!! Hope to see you all there representing Riverview Elementary!

Starting on September 10th and running until October 5th, all Riverview students will be participating in this fun reading challenge. Students must read 4 books at their independent reading level. For our Little Giants and Kindergarten students, parents can read books with their students and log the book titles. Progress will be tracked in the classroom with the teacher and a BSU Football Poster. Ball State Athletics will provide a keepsake bookmark to each student who completes the program. On the back, the bookmark features instructions for parents/guardians to access complimentary tickets to the homecoming football game at Scheumann Stadium on October 20th.
